SCHOOL PROFILE

Established in 2006, Institut Les Compétences Marocaines (ICMP-Private Moroccan Skills Institute) is a professional training centre whose objective is to implement improvement and development plans by providing training, advice and assistance.

ICMP offers a range of programmes and diplomas across various fields, via initial training or continuing education: Business Management and Administration, Transport & Logistics Administration, Finance and Accounting, IT Engineering, Languages and Communication Techniques.

ICMP considers that professional positioning is facilitated by developing the personal and professional potential of each individual. To this effect, the school's pedagogical plan focuses on: the development of theoretical knowledge through the transfer of knowledge, skills, cutting-edge information and news in various fields; the development of know-how which is necessary in terms of training specialised operational individuals who are also multi-skilled; the development of appropriate attitude by encouraging a sense of initiative, responsiveness and creativity, as well as the capacity to communicate, justify and negotiate; the development of etiquette through a variety of extracurricular activities.

The FEDE is an INGO International Non-Governmental Organisation and a supranational institution that was created in 1963, which is endowed with participatory status with the Council of Europe. It federates an international network comprised of over 500 higher and professional education institutions in 35 countries across 4 continents, which share a common project that is hinged on academic excellence, pedagogical innovation, scientific research and openness to the world. The FEDE delivers 90 European degrees that are available in English and in the national language, from the Foundation Degree, the European Bachelor's Degree, the European Master's Degree to the DBA Doctorate of Business Administration. The FEDE counts an international network of over 180,000 alumni.
