SCHOOL PROFILE

CFC Sainte-Ursule is an institution based in Caen (France) that specialises in initial training and work-study programmes for careers in the tertiary and community health sectors.

The institution places students at the heart of its educational approach, which rests on three pillars: pedagogical innovation through regular supervision and personalised support, international exposure with partnerships abroad and language tutoring, and a solid network of partner companies in order to enhance students' immersion in the job market.

Its experienced and professional faculty encourages, motivates and listens to the students in order to mould them and enable them to become responsible, dynamic and autonomous professionals, thus meeting the needs of companies.

The FEDE is an INGO International Non-Governmental Organisation and a supranational institution that was created in 1963, which is endowed with participatory status with the Council of Europe.

It federates an international network comprised of over 500 higher and professional education institutions in 35 countries across 4 continents, which share a common project that is hinged on academic excellence, pedagogical innovation, scientific research and openness to the world.

The FEDE delivers 90 European degrees that are available in English and in the national language, from the Foundation Degree, the European Bachelor's Degree, the European Master's Degree to the DBA Doctorate of Business Administration. The FEDE counts an international network of over 180,000 alumni.
