

SCHOOL PROFILE

Business School Lausanne (BSL) is a private Swiss business school that offers BBA's, Masters, MBAs and DBAs, and whose goal is to train future managers who are responsible, competent and keen on societal, environmental and economic issues, locally and internationally.

With small numbers per class, and by offering personalised supervision, BSL guides students until they join the job market.

Owing to a deliberate international approach (with students from over sixty nationalities), BSL has carved a niche as an innovative school in terms of education, by establishing a pedagogical plan based on the values of responsibility, sustainability and entrepreneurship.

The FEDE is an INGO International Non-Governmental Organisation and a supranational institution that was created in 1963, which is endowed with participatory status with the Council of Europe.

It federates an international network comprised of over 500 higher and professional education institutions in 35 countries across 4 continents, which share a common project that is hinged on academic excellence, pedagogical innovation, scientific research and openness to the world.

The FEDE delivers 90 European degrees that are available in English and in the national language, from the Foundation Degree, the European Bachelor's Degree, the European Master's Degree to the DBA Doctorate of Business Administration. The FEDE counts an international network of over 180,000 alumni.
