SCHOOL PROFILE

The Nantes-based (France) ENC Communication School offers bachelor's and master's degrees courses in the field of communication. ENC Communication offers student-centric programmes that combine academic and pedagogical quality.

The school relies on innovative pedagogy to develop the professional skills of its students while enabling them to gain multiple experiences during the training period. The school encourages a corporate and initiative spirit, strives to impart the values of commitment and accountability, fosters multiple interactions with the corporate realm (internships, marketing campaigns, professional breakfast meetings) and guides its students towards successfully integrating the job market.

ENC positions international orientation at the core of its approach. The school fosters international exposure, develops exchange programmes with foreign universities, offers foreign language lessons, provides the possibility to undertake internship on an international level and offers language stays abroad.

The FEDE is an INGO International Non-Governmental Organisation and a supranational institution that was created in 1963, which is endowed with participatory status with the Council of Europe.

It federates an international network comprised of over 500 higher and professional education institutions in 35 countries across 4 continents, which share a common project that is hinged on academic excellence, pedagogical innovation, scientific research and openness to the world.

The FEDE delivers 90 European degrees that are available in English and in the national language, from the Foundation Degree, the European Bachelor's Degree, the European Master's Degree to the DBA Doctorate of Business Administration. The FEDE counts an international network of over 180,000 alumni.
