SCHOOL PROFILE

IFGIA, the Institute of Applied Computer Science Management, is a private institution based in Kenitra (Morocco).

It offers qualifying programmes up to master's degrees in IT, logistics and management, which meet students' expectations and economic stakeholders' needs alike.

Courses at IFGIA develop the technological, commercial and entrepreneurial knowledge of its students.

The institution also positions practical lessons at the heart of its pedagogical approach, through corporate immersion periods that enhance the acquisition of solid professional skills.

The FEDE is an INGO International Non-Governmental Organisation and a supranational institution that was created in 1963, which is endowed with participatory status with the Council of Europe.

It federates an international network comprised of over 500 higher and professional education institutions in 35 countries across 4 continents, which share a common project that is hinged on academic excellence, pedagogical innovation, scientific research and openness to the world.

The FEDE delivers 90 European degrees that are available in English and in the national language, from the Foundation Degree, the European Bachelor's Degree, the European Master's Degree to the DBA Doctorate of Business Administration. The FEDE counts an international network of over 180,000 alumni.
