SCHOOL PROFILE

IFPC is a professional training institution based in Boucau (France), whose programmes are based on four fields: commerce, hospitality/restaurant business, catering and health careers.

IFPC's main objective is its students' employability, such that the school trains them on the acquisition of corporate know-how and attitude, in order for them to be responsible, professional and operational.

This modest-sized institution favours flexible training that is tailored to each individual's needs and rhythm, thanks to a pedagogical team sourced from the professional world, thus enabling the acquisition of both theoretical and practical knowledge.

Lastly, IFPC relies on a strong network of professional and institutional partners, which enhances its pedagogical approach.

The FEDE is an INGO International Non-Governmental Organisation and a supranational institution that was created in 1963, which is endowed with participatory status with the Council of Europe.

It federates an international network comprised of over 500 higher and professional education institutions in 35 countries across 4 continents, which share a common project that is hinged on academic excellence, pedagogical innovation, scientific research and openness to the world.

The FEDE delivers 90 European degrees that are available in English and in the national language, from the Foundation Degree, the European Bachelor's Degree, the European Master's Degree to the DBA Doctorate of Business Administration. The FEDE counts an international network of over 180,000 alumni.
