SCHOOL PROFILE

EDD, a school for customs brokers, was founded in 1982 and is based in Casablanca (Morocco). It is the first private accredited Moroccan school that is specialised in customs, transport and logistics professional training. This institution was created in order to meet the needs of the Moroccan customs sector, as well as to facilitate its development.

EDD offers a diverse range of programmes that are tailored to the expectations of national and international companies operating in sectors such as logistics, transport, customs and marketing. This quality training, through practical learning and personalised supervision, and by an experienced faculty, has largely contributed to the development of the school.

Lastly, through the years, EDD has succeeded in establishing relations with strategic and professional partners in order to exemplify values of excellence and success.

The FEDE is an INGO International Non-Governmental Organisation and a supranational institution that was created in 1963, which is endowed with participatory status with the Council of Europe.

It federates an international network comprised of over 500 higher and professional education institutions in 35 countries across 4 continents, which share a common project that is hinged on academic excellence, pedagogical innovation, scientific research and openness to the world.
