SCHOOL PROFILE

EHC, the Hospitality School of Casablanca (Morocco), offers training in hospitality and restaurant business which meet the real needs of companies in the sector.

At the heart of a demanding sector, EHC strives to offer excellent training, which is highly in demand among recruiters. Students of EHC acquire practical knowledges tailored to the profession, making them professionals who are capable of serving in senior positions, both in Morocco and internationally.

The educational approach of EHC is based on individualised pedagogy, with a limited number of students by design. This proximity with the pedagogical teams guarantees quality supervision and guidance throughout the training period.

Lastly, EHC operates under the licence of the Geneva School of Hospitality (Ecole Hôtelière de Genève), one of the ten most prestigious hospitality schools in the world, and therefore benefits from its prestige and know-how.

The FEDE is an INGO International Non-Governmental Organisation and a supranational institution that was created in 1963, which is endowed with participatory status with the Council of Europe.

It federates an international network comprised of over 500 higher and professional education institutions in 35 countries across 4 continents, which share a common project that is hinged on academic excellence, pedagogical innovation, scientific research and openness to the world.

The FEDE delivers 90 European degrees that are available in English and in the national language, from the Foundation Degree, the European Bachelor's Degree, the European Master's Degree to the DBA Doctorate of Business Administration. The FEDE counts an international network of over 180,000 alumni.
